On board Hook's pirate ship, The Jolly Roger.

ALL Yo ho ho, the pirate life,
The flag of skull and bones,
A merry hour upon the drink,
And hey for Davy Jones!

Avast, belay, yo ho, heave to,
A-pirating we'll go,
And if we're parted by a shot
We're sure to meet below!

HOOK Yo ho ho, when I say claw
By fear they're overtook,
There's nothing left upon your bones
When you shake hands with Hook!

Ah ha me hearties, look you here
A pretty game to play.
Catch her quick, and tie her up
Or else she'll fly away.

Dance break. They taunt Wendy and tie her up.

ALL Yo ho ho, the pirate life,
The flag of skull and bones,
A merry hour upon the drink,
And hey for Davy Jones!

Avast, belay, yo ho, heave to,
A-pirating we'll go,
And if we're parted by a shot
We're sure to meet below!

We are the scum of Rio
The pistol and the knife
And if we're parted by a shot
That is the pirate life!

HOOK Now then, bullies, six of you walk the plank tonight. Which of you is it to be? Where's the plank?

SMEE Here I am, sir.

HOOK Any more of your flippancy, and I'll stand you on the end of it.

SMEE I might blow off.

HOOK What you do in the privacy of your own cabin is entirely up to you. Fetch the plank and I will interrogate the prisoner. So, my beauty, you are to see your friends walk the plank. How very sad.

WENDY Are they to die?

HOOK They are. Would you like to save them?

WENDY I would.

HOOK Then tell me where is Peter Pan? Where did he go? Tell me that one thing and I will spare their lives.

WENDY I shan't tell.

HOOK Then perhaps you would like to offer a mother's last words to her children.

WENDY We hope that you will die like English gentlemen.

HOOK Stow this gab! 'We', the royal 'we'? This isn't the Queen's speech, you know. She's not quacking Smee.

SMEE Before we squidge them all, perhaps you might try this.

Smee produces a plastic squeaky caveman's club.

HOOK Good idea. Now listen, my pulchritudinous princess, this piece of technology is called a memory stick. Basically, I hit you with it until you remember where Peter Pan went. So, let us begin, where did he go?

WENDY I don't remember.

HOOK Where did Peter Pan go?

WENDY I'm not telling you.

HOOK Tell me where he went.

WENDY Hitting a girl is… very bad manners!

Hook hits her repeatedly. She steals the stick and hits Hook repeatedly.

HOOK Argh! This seals your doom.

WENDY You're the nastiest man I've ever met.

HOOK Flattery will get you nowhere. You will walk first. Fetch the plank!

SMEE Here it is.

Slapstick plank routine. Wendy and the Lost Boys make a ticking noise.

HOOK Stop this! Listen...

SMEE The tick tock croc! Get down below you scum.

BOTH We'll get you later.

The pirates exit.

WENDY Oh, Peter. This is all my fault. I should never have taken us away from home. I'm sorry I was cross with you, but you can be so headstrong. I think that's why I like you.

Odd things happen
On our way through life
We can lose our way
And we don't know why

I remember
I fell in love with you
It happened all so fast
Before I even knew

I wish you were here
To help me out and wipe my tears
To be brave and strong
To show me how, how I long for
You are the one
Now I know that I'm not wrong
This is my song
To show you how, how I long for you
